

Benefits of Institutional Membership NEPS Steering Committee March 6, 2013

The Steering Committee of NEPS has decided the benefits for institutional members. Institutional members are considered “..Research Centers, University Departments and other agencies which have the statutory task of promoting the scientific research in peace science or related disciplines...” (art. 3 of the Statute).

Benefits of Institutional membership include:

- 1) Receiving NEPS newsletter to institutional addresses.
- 2) Mention on the NEPS website
- 3) Getting a discounted fee for individuals affiliated who are willing to join NEPS. In 2013, fees for senior scholars and Phd students would be 25 euros (rather than 40) and 10 euros (rather than 20) respectively.
